

Sinclair Broadcasting is planning to violate Federal election laws by forcing their stations to show an anti-Kerry documentary.

This sort of direct electioneering by a media giant is absolutely unacceptable. Sinclair uses the public airwaves; they are obligated BY LAW to serve the public interest. But this piece is not "public interest"; it is a smear piece, intended to swing the Presidential election.

Please make it clear to Sinclair Broadcasting that this is unacceptable. If they air this documentary, without airing a balancing view ("Fahrenheit 9/11", perhaps?) they should lose their license to broadcast on the public airwaves.
